Little children have the potential to be multilingual so they can acquire English with enough help of pictures and sounds. the vivid pictures in the book and the recording in the magic pen can greatly assist children to understand the book without Chinese. it is hope that children can acquire English directly without any influence of their mother tongue. thus they can use English freely when they grow up.

Complete English training but more than english teaching

The book is full of pictures and accompanied by a magic pen, which enables children to enjoy reading the book with little help of the teacher and parents. the activities in the book are comprehensive. children not only listen, read, repeat, but also sing, play, and make handicrafts. considering children development to be a dynamic process, the book also teaches basic maths and guides children in their social practice when introducing the english language
